Dear Madame

In the little magazine, New York News I was reading to day I see your picture. and you certainly look a good kind hearted lady who would help the needy, and what a world of sorrow and trouble you have lived through. I don't see how any sane person could think you were mixed up with your husband's badger death. I am a widow 2 years and have heart trouble am left all alone and I go to a Hospital once a week for treatment for it as I am without means to pay a bill.
I have a furnished room in a
